MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Hello, bonjour, čěčhaθeč parents and guardians A big welcome and congratulations to Ms. Jasmin Marshman and Mike Hilleren who the district announced as the new Principal and Vice Principal for Brooks the next school year. I wish them all the best as they will be joining current Vice Principals Mrs. Doyle, and Mrs. Larkin at the school.

Last week we hosted the presenter from the Raven Program information session, and on Wednesday the Mental Health Fair. The Report Cards were distributed on Friday. I did receive a few messages from parents that were unable to find the report on the MyEd Parent Portal. If you're having issues with your child's portal account, please drop a message or have a look at our parent portal help page: http://www.sd47.bc.ca/school/brooks/Parents/myed/Pages/default.aspx#/=" . We do have a busy week upcoming highlighted by the Mamma Mia musical's opening night on Thursday evening. Reminder as well that we have a PAC meeting on Tuesday evening. Have a wonderful week!

ATHLETIC BLOCK – SELF REPORTING

Students who participate on 2 or more Brooks' teams (or 1 that qualifies for BC's) for the duration of the season will be recognized with a Brooks Athletics Block. All athletic activities are completely voluntarily, represent Brooks, and are non-credited in nature. Students will be required to fill out an athletics participation log form and then have this verified by a teacher coach or the Athletics Director on behalf of a community Brooks coach. The completed form needs to be submitted to the main office, or Mrs. Larkin by June 3rd.

GRADUATION PLANNING ASSEMBLY MONDDAY, MAY 9, 2022 AT 10:00 AM – GREAT HALL

Reminder to all Grade 12s including Brooks, PIE, Trades, SD93, BOP, and CE just a reminder that our student Graduation Committee has asked for all Grade 12s to have a conversation regarding the Graduation Ceremony. There is a desire to make changes knowing that many of the restrictions have been lifted. A final decision will follow soon after this meeting.
